Buyers of Pullback; Improved AI Visibility into 2028

CITI'S TAKE

AVGO reported in-line Apr-Q with July-Q AI sales/margins modestly below Street which we believe was due to near-term mix shift to chips from racks (see results). Bookings grew to $30B+ vs $11B shipped AI sales on “insatiable” AI demand. Management maintained >$100B in AI sales outlook for FY27 on measured industry supply/data center power availability for now but provided improved visibility/GW outlook for FY28. We view the share price pullback as an enhanced buying opportunity and maintain our above-consensus F26/F27/F28 EPS of $11.45/$18.17/$25.25 as lower gross margins due to higher AI sales mix are offset by stable operating margins. We maintain Buy with a TP of $500, or 20X multiple applied to F28 EPS of $25.

Guides F3Q26 gross margins lower – Jul-Q gross margin is guided down 300 basis points Q/Q to 74.0%, below consensus of 76.8% as mix of AI ASIC business increases from ~30% of sales to ~38% of sales. Jul-Q operating margin guide of 67.0% was below our estimate of 68.6% and consensus of 67.5%.

AI sales are accelerating from 49% to 55% of sales in the Jul-Q — Apr-Q AI sales of $10.8B (up 29% Q/Q) was above consensus $10.7B (up 27% Q/Q) and Jul-Q AI sales were guided to 16.0B (up 48% Q/Q), below our estimate of $17.5B (up 61% Q/Q) and consensus of $16.3B (up 53% Q/Q).

Expects more than $100B of AI sales in F27 – AVGO reiterated AI semiconductor sales exceeding $100B in F27, with growth continuing in F28. There is no change to the 10GW shipments in 2027, but it will likely be back-half loaded, with strong trajectory into 2028. AVGO expects AI semiconductor sales to double in 2H26 vs 1H26, with F26 AI sales around $56B.

Content per GW increases over time – Content per GW was guided to roughly $10–20B, though content differs by customers and products. AVGO noted that content per GW will generally increase over time due to higher compute content, and other components like SRAMs, CPUs, more HBM.

II- AI sales and commentary

- OpenAI: AVGO has a contractual commitment to deploy 1.3GW in 2027, as part of a larger 10GW deployment by 2029.
- Meta: Expect to deploy 3GW through the end of 2028. Initial order for 1GW which includes ASIC and networking will start delivery in 2H27.
- Other 2 customers: Expect shipments to begin in late 2026 and early 2027. Purchase orders totaled $6B.
- Formation of AI XPV Platform: Created an AI XPV platform with Blackstone and other leading investors to deploy more than 2 capacity through the end of 2028. First tranche of platform ($35B) is being launched by Apollo now. This arrangement is roughly ~8GW incremental to the expected deployment in 2028.

- While networking as a % of AI sales mix is ~40% this quarter, AVGO believes the longer-term networking to XPU attach rate is roughly 30%.
- AVGO has locked in HBM pricing and will pass through any future price hikes to customers.

III – Estimate are Largely Unchanged

We are lowering our gross margins as AI ASIC mix increases from 54% in F26 to 79% in F28. However, opex is largely stable, and as such we adjusted our F26/F27/F28 EPS minimally by 1%/0%/1%.

Broadcom Inc

Company description

Broadcom Inc (AVGO) is a semiconductor company that specializes in semiconductor solutions for wired infrastructure and wireless communications and was formed as a result of the merger of Avago Technologies and Broadcom Corporation in 2016. Headquartered in San Jose, CA, and Singapore, Broadcom has roughly 15,000 employees worldwide. The company's products are used primarily in wired infrastructure, networking, handset, connectivity, broadband, storage and industrial applications. Broadcom's major customers include handset OEMs and communications equipment OEMs. Broadcom has manufacturing facilities in Fort Collins, CO, Breinigsville, PA, Matamoros, Mexico, and Singapore. The company also outsources part of its manufacturing to third-party foundries.

Investment strategy

We are Buy-rated on AVGO given accelerating Y/Y AI sales in 2026 & 2027.

Valuation

Our PT of $500, or 20X F28 EPS, is at the low end of recent trading range of 20-40X to reflect intensifying competition.

Risks

We see the following key risks to our target price:

Customer: We estimate it derives ~35-40% of sales from its largest customer, Google. Therefore, any major uptick/downtick in demand for Google's products could result in upside/downside to our estimates and rating for Broadcom.

SG&A target: Broadcom's long-term SG&A target is <3% of revenue (excluding stock-based compensation), one of the lowest among semi peers. However, if Broadcom is unable to reach its SG&A target, it could result in downside to our estimates and rating for Broadcom.

Competition: Any fluctuations in market share between Broadcom and its competitors could result in upside/downside risk to our estimates.

M&A: If Broadcom pursues further acquisitions, it could lead to margin/EPS accretion/dilution and result in upside/downside to our estimates.

If the impact on the company from any of these factors proves to be greater than we anticipate, the stock will likely have difficulty achieving our target price. However, should they be less than anticipated, the stock could trade above our target price.

Analysts' compensation is determined by Citi Research management and Citigroup's senior management and is based upon activities and services intended to benefit the investor clients of Citigroup Global Markets Inc. and its affiliates (the "Firm").

Compensation is not linked to specific transactions or recommendations. Like all Firm employees, analysts receive compensation that is impacted by overall Firm profitability which includes investment banking, sales and trading, and principal trading revenues. One factor in equity research analyst compensation is arranging corporate access events between institutional clients and the management teams of covered companies. Typically, company management is more likely to participate when the analyst has a positive view of the company.

For financial instruments recommended in the Product in which the Firm is not a market maker, the Firm is a liquidity provider in such financial instruments (and any underlying instruments) and may act as principal in connection with transactions in such instruments. The Firm is a regular issuer of traded financial instruments linked to securities that may have been recommended in the Product. The Firm regularly trades in the securities of the issuer(s) discussed in the Product. Guide to Citi Research Fundamental Research Investment Ratings:

Citi Research stock recommendations include an investment rating and an optional risk rating to highlight high risk stocks.

Risk rating takes into account both price volatility and fundamental criteria. Stocks will either have no risk rating or a High risk rating assigned.

Investment Ratings: Citi Research investment ratings are Buy, Neutral and Sell. Our ratings are a function of analyst expectations of expected total return ("ETR") and risk. ETR is the sum of the forecast price appreciation (or depreciation) plus the dividend yield for a stock within the next 12 months. The target price is based on a 12 month time horizon. The Investment rating definitions are: Buy (1) ETR of 15% or more or 25% or more for High risk stocks; and Sell (3) for negative ETR. Any covered stock not assigned a Buy or a Sell is a Neutral (2). For stocks rated Neutral (2), if an analyst believes that there are insufficient valuation drivers and/or investment catalysts to derive a positive or negative investment view, they may elect with the approval of Citi Research management not to assign a target price and, thus, not derive an ETR. Citi Research may suspend its rating and target price and assign "Rating Suspended" status for regulatory and/or internal policy reasons. Citi Research may also suspend its rating and target price and assign "Under Review" status for other exceptional circumstances (e.g. lack of information critical to the analyst's thesis, trading suspension) affecting the company and/or trading in the company's securities. In both such situations, the rating and target price will show as "—" and "—" respectively in the rating history price chart. Prior to 11 April 2022 Citi Research assigned "Under Review" status to both situations and prior to 11 Nov 2020 only in exceptional circumstances. As soon as practically possible, the analyst will publish a note re-establishing a rating and investment thesis. Investment ratings are determined by the ranges described above at the time of initiation of coverage, a change in investment and/or risk rating, or a change in target price (subject to limited management discretion). At times, the expected total returns may fall outside of these ranges because of market price movements and/or other short-term volatility or trading patterns. Such interim deviations will be permitted but will become subject to review by Research Management. Your decision to buy or sell a security should be based upon your personal investment objectives and should be made only after evaluating the stock's expected performance and risk.

Catalyst Watch/Short Term Views ("STV") Ratings Disclosure:

Catalyst Watch and STV Upside/Downside calls: Citi Research may also include a Catalyst Watch or STV Upside or Downside call to indicate the analyst expects the share price to rise (fall) in absolute terms over a specified period of 30 or 90 days in reaction to one or more specific near-term catalysts or events impacting the company or the market. A Catalyst Watch will be published when Analyst confidence is high that an impact to share price will occur; it will be a STV when confidence level is moderate. A Catalyst Watch or STV Upside/Downside call will automatically expire at the end of the specified 30/90 day period. The Catalyst Watch will also be automatically removed if share price performance (calculated at market close) exceeds 15% against the direction of the call (unless over-ridden by the analyst). The analyst may also remove a Catalyst Watch or STV call prior to the end of the specified period in a published research note. A Catalyst Watch/STV Upside or Downside call may be different from and does not affect a stock's fundamental equity rating, which reflects a longer-term total absolute return expectation. For purposes of FINRA ratings-distribution-disclosure rules, a Catalyst Watch/STV Upside call corresponds to a buy recommendation and a Catalyst Watch/STV Downside call corresponds to a sell recommendation. Any stock not assigned to a Catalyst Watch Upside, Catalyst Watch Downside, STV Upside, or STV Downside call is considered Catalyst Watch/STV No View. For purposes of FINRA ratings distribution-disclosure rules, we correspond Catalyst Watch/STV No View to Hold in our ratings distribution table for our Catalyst Watch/STV Upside/Downside rating system. However, we reiterate that we do not consider No View to be a recommendation. For all Catalyst Watch/STV Upside/Downside calls, risk exists that the catalyst(s) and associated share-price movement will not materialize as expected.

Investing in non-U.S. securities, including ADRs, may entail certain risks. The securities of non-U.S. issuers may not be registered with, nor be subject to the reporting requirements of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. Foreign companies are generally not subject to uniform audit and reporting standards, practices and requirements comparable to those in the U.S. Securities of some foreign companies may be less liquid and their prices more volatile than securities of comparable U.S. companies. Net dividends to ADR investors are estimated, using withholding tax rates conventions, deemed accurate, but investors are urged to consult their tax advisor for exact dividend computations.
