Biren (6082.HK): GPU ramping up with Superpod and Clusters delivered; 1H26 in line; Buy

Biren's 1H26 revenue was up 27% HoH to Rmb1.2bn, in line with the company's guidance and our estimate, while GM of 42.7% was lower than our estimate and Bloomberg consensus, which we attribute to the rising cost of computing board key components (e.g memory, PCB, etc.). 1H26 opex ratio was better than our estimate and Bloomberg consensus, reflecting the company's improving operational efficiency as shipments ramp up. Overall, 1H26 net loss was largely in line with our estimate, Bloomberg consensus, and the company's guidance. The company also delivered AI chip computing cluster and superpods to clients, enhancing AI training and inferencing efficiency for clients and enabling Biren to capture the rising computing power end demand in the China market. We remain positive on Biren's growth ahead, supported by (1) cloud capex uptrend in the local market, (2) AI chip shipments ramp up, (3) product mix upgrade towards AI chips with stronger performance and higher ASP, (4) client base expansion towards CSP clients. Maintain Buy.

Valuation: We continue to derive our 12M TP based on the 2030E discounted EV/ EBITDA methodology to capture the company's long-term growth, with the target EV / EBITDA updated to 36.3x 2030E EBITDA (vs. 36.0x previously). Our target EV / EBITDA is still derived from the refreshed peers' forward year EV / EBITDA vs. avg. EBITDA YoY. We use target EV/ EBITDA multiple at 36.3x on 2030E EBITDA, and discounted back to 2027E with COE at 12.7% (unchanged) to derive our 12M TP at HK$80.5 (unchanged). Maintain Buy.

GS Factor Profile

The Goldman Sachs Factor Profile provides investment context for a stock by comparing key attributes to the market (i.e. our universe of rated stocks) and its sector peers. The four key attributes depicted are: Growth, Financial Returns, Multiple (e.g. valuation) and Integrated (a composite of Growth, Financial Returns and Multiple). Growth, Financial Returns and Multiple are calculated by using normalized ranks for specific metrics for each stock. The normalized ranks for the metrics are then averaged and converted into percentiles for the relevant attribute. The precise calculation of each metric may vary depending on the fiscal year, industry and region, but the standard approach is as follows:

Growth is based on a stock's forward-looking sales growth, EBITDA growth and EPS growth (for financial stocks, only EPS and sales growth), with a higher percentile indicating a higher growth company. Financial Returns is based on a stock's forward-looking ROE, ROCE and CROCI (for financial stocks, only ROE), with a higher percentile indicating a company with higher financial returns. Multiple is based on a stock's forward-looking P/E, P/B, price/dividend (P/D), EV/EBITDA, EV/FCF and EV/Debt Adjusted Cash Flow (DACF) (for financial stocks, only P/E, P/B and P/D), with a higher percentile indicating a stock trading at a higher multiple. The Integrated percentile is calculated as the average of the Growth percentile, Financial Returns percentile and (100% - Multiple percentile).

Financial Returns and Multiple use the Goldman Sachs analyst forecasts at the fiscal year-end at least three quarters in the future. Growth uses inputs for the fiscal year at least seven quarters in the future compared with the year at least three quarters in the future (on a per-share basis for all metrics).

For a more detailed description of how we calculate the GS Factor Profile, please contact your GS representative.

M&A Rank

Across our global coverage, we examine stocks using an M&A framework, considering both qualitative factors and quantitative factors (which may vary across sectors and regions) to incorporate the potential that certain companies could be acquired. We then assign a M&A rank as a means of scoring companies under our rated coverage from 1 to 3, with 1 representing high (30%-50%) probability of the company becoming an acquisition target, 2 representing medium (15%-30%) probability and 3 representing low (0%-15%) probability. For companies ranked 1 or 2, in line with our standard departmental guidelines we incorporate an M&A component into our target price. M&A rank of 3 is considered immaterial and therefore does not factor into our price target, and may or may not be discussed in research.

Ratings, coverage universe and related definitions

Buy (B), Neutral (N), Sell (S) Analysts recommend stocks as Buys or Sells for inclusion on various regional Investment Lists. Being assigned a Buy or Sell on an Investment List is determined by a stock's total return potential relative to its coverage universe. Any stock not assigned as a Buy or a Sell on an Investment List with an active rating (i.e., a stock that is not Rating Suspended, Not Rated, Early-Stage Biotech, Coverage Suspended or Not Covered), is deemed Neutral. Each region manages Regional Conviction Lists, which are selected from Buy rated stocks on the respective region's Investment Lists and represent investment recommendations focused on the size of the total return potential and/or the likelihood of the realization of the return across their respective areas of coverage. The addition or removal of stocks from such Conviction Lists are managed by the Investment Review Committee or other designated committee in each respective region and do not represent a change in the analysts' investment rating for such stocks.

Total return potential represents the upside or downside differential between the current share price and the price target, including all paid or anticipated dividends, expected during the time horizon associated with the price target.
